

WAGE & NON-WAGE GARNISHMENT PROCEDURES HAVE CHANGED EFFECTIVE

JANUARY 1, 2001

Wage garnishments will not need to be issued every 30 days. Garnishments will now need to be in new packet form.

NON-WAGE garnishments will still need to be issued every 30 days, but will need to be in new packet form.

You must provide all copies, INCOMPLETE PACKETS WILL BE RETURNED TO YOU. Please print legibly or type forms.

NUMBER OF COPIES NEEDED FOR EACH PACKET:

- 2 Request for Garnishment
- 3 Order for Garnishment
- 3 Return of Service
- 2 Answer of Garnishee
- 1 Instruction Sheet

Once you receive the Return of Service Form, you will be responsible for providing a Notice of Hearing form to the defendant. Form included in packet.

Once a garnishment has been paid in full or answer indicates employee was terminated or never employed, a Release of Garnishment needs to be filed with the court. Form provided with packet.

A Satisfaction of Judgment must be filed with the court. A copy must also be sent to the Defendant. Form provided in packet.

EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2011

There will be a $12.50 surcharge added to each garnishment processed.

If your garnishment is to be served outside of Wyandotte County, you need to contact the Sheriff of the county it's to be served in, find out what their service fee is and include a separate check or money order for that amount.

INSTRUCTIONS TO GARNISHEE
(To Attach Other Than Earnings)

You must complete the Answer form which accompanies these instructions within 14 days after the garnishment order is served on you. The Answer form covers two (2) types of property:

- (1) Money, funds, credits or other indebtedness you owe to the judgment debtor (other than earnings).
You must disclose on the Answer any money that you owe to the judgment debtor as of the date the order is served on you and any money that you owe to the judgment debtor up until the time you complete the Answer form.

- (2) Intangible property or funds of an estate in which the judgment debtor is a beneficiary under the estate. If you are an executor or administrator of the estate, you must disclose the information about the estate required on the Answer form and not deliver to the judgment debtor any such intangible property or funds until further order of the Court from which the order of garnishment was issued.

If more than one of the categories above applies to you, then you must complete all sections of the Answer form which apply.

Earnings are defined as compensation for personal services, whether called wages, salary, commission, bonus or otherwise, which is paid to an employee. If the judgment debtor is an employee of yours, then the compensation you pay for personal services is earnings and you do not disclose this under category 1. If the judgment debtor works for you other than as an employee, such as under a contract or as a contractor, then the money you pay for the work is not earnings and you must disclose all of the money due the judgment debtor in category 1 above.

Joint Account. If you are a bank, savings and loan association, credit union or finance company and you hold funds or credits or are indebted to the judgment debtor on an account which the judgment debtor owns in joint tenancy with one or more individuals who are not subject to the garnishment, you shall withhold the entire amount sought by the garnishment. You shall not be liable to the joint owners if it is later determined that the judgment debtor does not own the funds.

Administrative Fee: From funds, credits or indebtedness due the judgment debtor, you may withhold and retain to defray your costs an administrative fee of $10 ($15 if you are a bank, savings and loan association, credit union, or finance company) for each garnishment order served on you that attaches funds, credits or indebtedness. Such administrative fee shall be in addition to the amount required to be withheld under the order for garnishment, except that if the amount required to be withheld under the order for garnishment is greater than the amount of the funds, credits or indebtedness held by the garnishee, the fee shall be deducted from the amount withheld.

If you are a bank, savings and loan association, credit union or finance company, and are holding any funds, credits or indebtedness belonging to or owing the judgment debtor, the amount to be withheld by you pursuant to the order shall not exceed the amount stated in the order.

If, after reviewing the above instructions, you determine that you do not have any assets of the judgment debtor, fill out the section of the Answer form with the heading "Answer of Garnishee - No Assets."

Sign and date the Answer form under penalty of perjury on the line provided at the bottom of the first section of the form. If you have no assets of the judgment debtor in your possession or control, sign and date the section of the Answer form with the heading "Answer of Garnishee - No Assets."

After you have signed and dated the appropriate section of the Answer form, you must deliver the completed form as follows:

Where to Deliver the Completed Answer Form:

If the judgment creditor is represented, deliver a copy of the completed Answer form to the judgment creditor's attorney and the judgment debtor at the addresses listed on the form.

If the judgment creditor has no attorney, deliver a copy of the completed Answer form to the judgment creditor and the judgment debtor at the addresses listed on the form. However, if you do not have assets of the judgment debtor, you need not deliver a copy of the completed Answer form to the judgment debtor.

How to Deliver the Completed Answer Form:

You may deliver a copy by regular mail, fax transmission, electronic mail, personal delivery, or any other reliable delivery method.

What to Do With Money or Property Disclosed in the Answer Form:

Hold the money or property disclosed in the Answer form until you receive an order from the court which will instruct you how to pay the amount that you are holding as indicated by your Answer or such lesser amount as may be indicated in the order, or until this garnishment is released. This garnishment may be released in full by the court or the Judgment Creditor.

If you do not receive an order to pay within 60 days following the date your Answer is received by the judgment creditor, you may release the funds or property you are holding pursuant to your Answer.

TO BE DELIVERED BY THE JUDGMENT CREDITOR TO THE JUDGMENT DEBTOR IN ANY REASONABLE MANNER IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING SERVICE OF THE GARNISHMENT ORDER ON THE GARNISHEE.

NOTICE TO JUDGMENT DEBTOR
(non-earnings garnishment)

You are hereby notified that the court has issued an order in the above case in favor of (name and address of judgment creditor), the judgment creditor in this proceeding, directing that some of your money, property or credits now in the possession of (name and address of garnishee), the garnishee in this proceeding, be used to satisfy your debt to the judgment creditor. This order was issued to enforce the judgment obtained by the judgment creditor against you in this case on _____, 20____. This order prohibits the garnishee from releasing all or part of your money or property to you, and the court will order that this money or property be turned over to the judgment creditor unless it finds that there is some reason why this money or property should not be used to satisfy the judgment.

The law of Kansas and the United States provides that certain benefit payments cannot be taken from you to pay a debt, even if they are deposited in a bank, savings and loan, or credit union. Such payments are commonly referred to as exempt property. Examples of exempt benefit payments which cannot be attached or executed upon by a creditor are:

- (1) Social Security disability and retirement benefits;
- (2) Supplemental Security Income (SSI) benefits;
- (3) Veteran's benefits;
- (4) Black lung benefits;
- (5) Cash assistance payments under the Temporary Assistance for Families (TAF) program;
- (6) Cash assistance payments under the General Assistance (GA) program;
- (7) Unemployment compensation payments;
- (8) Workers compensation payments;
- (9) Certain pension benefits and retirement funds, including KPERS.

This is not an exclusive list. Other state and federal exemptions may apply to you. Certain exemptions may not apply to support orders or to back taxes. An attorney can assist you in determining which benefit payments are exempt.

If the court order affects property other than money which belongs to you, some or all of this property may also be exempt. Examples of exempt personal property are:

- (1) Furnishings, equipment and supplies in your possession and reasonably necessary at your principal residence;
- (2) Personal jewelry and other ornaments up to $1,000 in value;
- (3) One vehicle regularly used for transportation up to $20,000 in value;
- (4) Tools and equipment used in your principal trade or business up to $7,500 in value.

If you believe that the money or property being held by the garnishee is exempt and should not be given to the judgment creditor, you may request a hearing before the court to assert this claim. In order to request a hearing, you should fill out the form at the bottom of this notice and obtain from the clerk of the court or the court a date and time for the hearing, and file the form with the clerk of the court at 710 N 7th St Kansas City, Ks 66101-Limited Actions Department . Immediately after the request for hearing is filed, you shall hand deliver a copy of the request for hearing to the judgment creditor or judgment creditor's attorney, if judgment creditor is represented by an attorney, or mail a copy of the request for hearing to the judgment creditor or judgment creditor's attorney, if judgment creditor is represented by an attorney, by first-class mail at the judgment creditor's, or judgment creditor's attorney's, last known address. You should ask for this hearing as soon as possible, but no later than 14 days after this notice is served on you. If you ask for a hearing to claim that your money or property is exempt, the court will hold a hearing no sooner than 7 nor later than 14 days after it receives your request. At the hearing you should present any evidence you have to show that your money or property is exempt. The burden is on you to prove that some or all of your property subject to the garnishment is exempt. You may wish to consult an attorney to represent you at this hearing.
